

Student Satisfaction Survey for the Academic Year 2020-2021 Analysis report

The student satisfaction survey was conducted online due to the limitations imposed by the Government of Maharashtra and the University of Mumbai. The survey was taken covering various aspects of teaching learning process such as preparation of the teacher when actual classes are taken, his communication capability, approach, completion of the syllabus, active interest while in the classroom etc. The survey further covered other mandatory aspects such as students mentoring, opportunities to learn and grow and also getting along with the students and assessing their inner strengths and weaknesses. The survey noticed the following results.
