Brief Report

NSS Unit of Swami Vivekananda Night College of Arts and Commerce, Dombivli (East) was virtually celebrated World Human Rights Day on 10/12/2021 between 7:00 to 8:00 pm. On this occasion of World Human Rights Day; Dr. S. L. Shelke had guide to the participants. Dr. Shelke put his thoughts on the topic of "Fundamental Rights in the Indian Citizens." Dr. Shelke told Fundamental Rights are negative in sense while directive principles of state policy are in positive sense. It means that what government bodies or authorities not to do and do respectively. In Keshvanand Bharti case Supreme Court of India observed that fundamental rights are the integral part of basic structure of Indian Constitution. Therefore state has not been authority to change this basic structure of constitution. It is responsibility of the state to create a fair situation in the society whereby Indian citizen can enjoy these fundamental rights freely. And on the violation of these fundamental rights citizen can move and knock the door of Supreme court and High Court under Article 32 and 226 of Indian Constitution respectively. And hence Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar says that Article 32 is the soul or spirit of the Indian Constitution of India.

The outcome of this programme was to give a strong message of the every human being is born equal and free from his birth and should enjoy his natural rights and without hurdles to the participants. The 21 students including NSS volunteers were participated in this virtual programme.
